OAK CLIFF.

Oak Cliff, Texas, Dec. 12.—There is quite a deal of sickness in the Cliff this week.

Mrs. Abe Gray, Mrs. Mary Earl and Mrs. Hanna McLemore are on the sick list.

Miss Lorene Jordan of Betterson Circle, who has been out of the city for a month or more has returned.

Mrs. Sam Davidson of 1124 E. 9th Street, was called to Galveston, last week to the bedside of her aunt's husband, Mr. Robert Craig, who died later in Fort Worth at Booker Washington sanitarium.

El Bethel Baptist Church,

B. Moore, D. D. Pastor
R. E. Jones, Clerk

Tough inclement the weather be, there are ever a few faithful Christians that are glad they can go to the house of the Lord. With a few present on Thursday night, 11th inst., to witness a great sermon by Rev. Stummons, who is traveling with Rev. T. H. Green, Supt. of the Bryan Orphan Home donated $29.00 to the orphans.

Sunday was "high day" in service. At 9:30 a. m., Sunday school was opened with the usual interest and inspiration, consequence of which great Bible truths are brought out, and splendid class collections. Pastor Moore, as General Supt., is alert on keeping the school advancing forward.

The 11 a. m. services eclipse the all day services, for we were highly fed gospel truths that are wholesome and elevating. The sermon delivered by pastor Moore, "A Testimony of Remembrance," 48th Psalm 10-12. 2:30 p. m. service was well spent in attendance at Friendship Baptist church, Queen City, Pastor Moore, accompanied by the choir and a goodly number of officers and laity, departed $10.55. But to the appreciative delight of El Bethel church was the reception of a check of $25.00 from Mr. Geo. Caldwell, a Christian philanthropist, through Rev. E. Arlington Wilson of Macedonia.

7:30 p. m. services another impressive sermon delivered by pastor Moore, text 1st Peter 2:5 subject, "God's Query." An immense congregation was present. Total collection $78.70.

MUNICIPAL XMAS TREE.

The Municipal Xmas tree will be at K. of P. Temple auditorium, Dec. 25th at 8 p. m. A program will be rendered. A present for every child.

Miss Fannie J. Dixon had her hand badly bruised last week by coming in contact with an electric fan. Fortunately no bones were broken.

Money doesn't make the man; but it pays most of the bills incident upon his construction.

The man who undertakes a business must have faith in his ability as a manager and salesman and he must also be able to communicate his faith to those to whom he sells in his particular commodity or service. It is so far as he increases the faith of the public in him as manager and in his commodity as able to satisfy the demand for which it was credited in just as far as his business going to grow and spread.

We suggest as headers for Xmas gift suggestions a few grains of white sugar, a little lump of coal or a stick of wood.

The Charity Worker who does and then brags about it is like the cow who gives a pail of wonderfully rich milk and sticks her foot in it.
